2014 GROWING SEASON

The Carneros and Oakville growing areas in the Napa Valley saw near-ideal weather for critical periods of the 2014 vintage. The vintage started off with generous winter rains which quickly broke with an unusually warm early spring. This setup resulted in an early bud break with moist soils, wonderful shoot extension, which proved advantageous for shading the delicate fruit in an extended heat spike in early July. Consistently warm summer temperatures allowed the grapes to mature steadily and develop complex flavors, resulting in elegant wines that couple brightness and a wonderful depth of flavor.

TASTING NOTES

Beautiful floral aromatics of red cassis, rich notes of strawberries and crushed blackberries, along with subtle background tones of clove and white pepper. Rich, plush mouthfeel, with sweet dark currant and blackberry fruit. Fabulous density and weight, with excellent texture. Bold and complex, with hints of dark chocolate and espresso...long subtle finish with focus and purity.
